

Image and caption guidelines

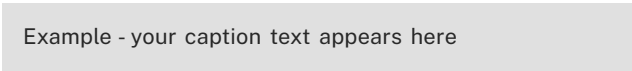

Use these guidelines to create an image and caption component on your web page.

Images should only be used when they add value and/or provide context to the content.

This means that all images must include a caption and text alternative (alt text) using the 'Image and caption' component.

Read our Image guidelines before adding images to your web page.

Example

Where you can use them

- Standard page

How to use them

Do

- Add alt text to all images.
- Read our Image guidelines.

Don't

- Avoid using images solely for decoration.
